

It is rumored that the case of Vallandigham is not yet decided, that Mr. Seward favors his release, and that the President is undecided. The Union men in Ohio demand that if he is to be punished at all he should be sent South.

The Washington dispatch of the N. Y. Post says:—"It is stated that a disagreement exists between Generals Halleck and Hooker, and it is now positively asserted that Hooker's new movement was countermanded by Halleck.—Prominent Senators and Representatives have united in a vigorous protest against General Halleck taking the field, and it is thought that the President may veto the project."

The draft will take place about the first of July. The soldiers now returning home will have had six weeks away from the army. By the middle of July the War Department will offer a bounty of $300 to all who will re-enlist, using the fund which has accumulated from those drafted persons choosing to pay $300 rather than go into the field. It is expected that nearly all these returning soldiers will accept the high bounty and return to the service. Six weeks will undoubtedly be consumed in the enrolling of all persons subject to military duty.

Gen. Burnside has issued an order declaring that the wives and families of persons in arms against the Government will in no case be admitted within the Federal lines, and that such wives and families as may now be within the lines must be removed as speedily as possible. "When sickness may render an immediate removal impracticable or dangerous, a proper discretion will be exercised by the officer having the duty of such removal in charge."

The newspapers state that Major Gen. Curtis, commanding in Missouri, has been relieved of that command. Gen. Schofield takes his place.

A dispatch from Fortress Monroe, dated 15th inst., says:—"This morning the steamers S. R. Spaulding, Georgia and Belvidere arrived from City Point with about three thousand exchanged prisoners, including Gen. Hays and several other officers. About four thousand other prisoners are expected to arrive within the next twenty-four hours. This will leave Richmond entirely clear of all Union prisoners."

The Secretary of War has recognized the applications of Cols. Turner and Raymond to organize a colored regiment in Washington.—The Secretary of War will send mustering officers to muster them into the service to-day.

Rev. E. H. Hager, who has been on trial at Joliet, Illinois, before an Ecclesiastical court for alleged immoral conduct, by a unanimous verdict, has been honorably acquitted.

The fact that a large number of officers and men of the Army of the Potomac have been granted leave of absence to visit their homes, is considered an indication that there is to be no immediate offensive movement on the Rappahannock.

The Post Office Department is in receipt of a letter from a Postmaster in one of the far west Territories, which says one of the mail messengers recently performed a journey on snow shoes of 130 miles, in four days.

Green peas and strawberries have made their appearance in the Nashville market.—The price asked for the former is only $1 25 per peck!

Of the one hundred and twelve prisoners who were sent hence to Philadelphia for the purpose of having the oath of allegiance administered to them, at their own request, four refused to take it, after arriving at the latter city, and were sent to Fort Delaware.

At Cincinnati, May 16, a writ of habeas corpus in the Vallandigham case was refused.

A few days since an Irish woman found $5,000 in greenbacks, in a paper mill, in a little town in Berkshire county, Mass. The money was in an intact sealed envelope.

Gen. McNeil was wounded in the hip last week by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of one of his aids. The wound is not serious, but will prevent him from taking the field for several weeks. He was at Cape Girardeau.

There are many candidates for the office of Second Comptroller of the United States Treasury.

Major General Schenck has ordered a military commission to assemble in Wheeling, Virginia, for the trial of offences against the United States.

Six of the most powerful, as well as largest iron Monitors ever built, are in course of construction at St. Louis.
